Kim Hundley – Retirement Celebration on May 13th at 3:15pm

East Richland Christian schools would like to announce the retirement of Mrs. Kim Hundley, our Speech-Language Pathologist. Mrs. Hundley started the speech therapy program in 1993-94 school year and provided speech and hearing services for 28 years. During her time at the former New Covenant Academy, Mrs. Hundley helped implement and coach the girls' basketball teams. She also served as Athletic Director for a number of years.

Mrs. Hundley states "I feel so blessed to have served in the Christian school where all 3 of our children got a strong foundation both spiritually and academically. They all 3 continue in their service to the Lord as a result of their time at NCA. It has been my joy to watch all the students, as well as the school, grow over the years". Mrs. Hundley plans to spend her retirement traveling with her husband Phil and enjoying her soon to be 8 grandkids.

It has been a privilege to be part of a Christ-centered school that is dedicated to building up the next generation in faith, service, and knowledge. It has been a special blessing to see my students' become parents who then entrust their children to be educated by the same school."

She plans to spend more time with her husband, Pastor Dr. Jerry Wenger, daughter (Kara) of West Palm Beach FL, son, and daughter-in-law (Seth & Hannah) of Cleveland OH, beloved grandchildren, as well as extended family and friends.
